The Maison Dominique is a chalet from 1600, pleasantly immersed in the green, isolated and exclusively reserved for those who want to run away from the daily chaos. We have created a "slow" environment, to give value to time, intimacy, discretion and exclusivity. Six rooms, all different one from each other. Every room has its own peculiarities and personality. Love and passion is in every detail, here nothing is left to chance. Because staying at the Maison, feels like home.

The new wellness center Monterosaterme lies along a freshwater river, at the feet of the Monterosa, the majestic glacier of the Alps. We have dreamed about our guests meeting the stunning nature of the valley and the wellness atmosphere to get them the most of a relaxed holiday.
